Captain I (ROTATIONAL)

ČASLAV RELJIĆ

From the moment you step aboard Rara Avis, you'll feel instantly at ease in the capable and welcoming hands of Captain Časlav. At 38, he brings 16 years of deep connection to the sea, having dedicated his career to sailing after discovering his true passion beyond high school studies in commercial fields.

Starting as a deckhand on various vessels, Časlav steadily advanced to captain through hands-on experience and unwavering commitment. Today, he is an exceptional host who delivers truly memorable cruises -attentive, knowledgeable, and genuinely enthusiastic about sharing Croatia's natural beauty.

A lifelong lover of the outdoors, Časlav recharges on the mountains when not at sea, enjoying time with his wife and two children. His wife comes from a family with generations of experience in nautical tourism, making their shared passion for the sea a family tradition.

Friendly, cheerful, and deeply serious about his role, Časlav thrives on meeting guests from around the world. His mission is simple: to showcase the hidden gems of his country and ensure every client leaves his ship completely satisfied and enriched. He speaks fluent Croatian and English.

Captain II (ROTATIONAL)

FILIP BREKALO

Filip Brekalo was born in Split, Croatia in 1985. From a young age, he was drawn to the sea, which set the course for his future career. Over the years, Filip has built an impressive reputation as a skilled and dedicated captain with over a decade of experience commanding motor sailing yachts and mini cruise ships along the Adriatic coast and across the globe.

Filip's expertise in yacht transfer is a testament to his ability to navigate and manage vessels in diverse conditions and locations. His leadership and management skills, honed through years of overseeing sailing duties, crew recruitment, and tourist hosting, instill confidence in his ability to handle any situation. His fluency in English and basic proficiency in Italian further enhance his ability to interact with a wide range of clients and crew members.

Outside his maritime career, he has achieved personal success in various fields. He is married and the proud father of one child. As a Croatian national representative in rafting, he earned a silver medal at the European championship. He is also an experienced football referee and an instructor in skiing and rafting, showcasing his versatility and passion for life beyond the sea.
